Mz Josephine's Amazing Holiday

Melbourne Fringe Festival 2006

" Mz Josephine is the mistress of challenging sacred cows in whatever nook or cranny she is poking. Mz Josephine's Amazing Holiday is one hell of a ride , well worth the fare, for plenty of laughs and singing that will knock your socks off ." Christine Young In Press 14/7/06.

Join Mz Josephine as she hits the highway for a road trip along the Western Highway, passing through Nhill towards family and back again. An absurdist cabaret about becoming and un becoming, the nature of performance, shedding burdens, the fear of nothing, and the annual reconciliation with family. Featuring songs by Jimmy Webb, Antony, Nina Simone, Osvaldo Farres, Jack O'Hagan and Harold Arlen. Expect singing, laughing, crying, flights of fantasy, plane crashes in the Andes and quality time with Judy Dench and my family.

" A bewitching voice and commanding presence"
- Stephanie Glickman In Press '05
